

North

Sometimes we must interfere. When human lives are endangered, when human dignity is in jeopardy, national borders and sensitivities become irrelevant. Whenever men or women are persecuted because of their race, religion, or political views, that place must – at that moment, become the center of the world.

Elie Wiesel, 1986 Nobel Peace Prize recipient

Since the collapse of the centralized agricultural system in the 1990s, anywhere between 1 million to 3 million North Koreans are estimated to have died from starvation.

There are anywhere from 50,000 - 300,000 North Koreans living and hiding in China, mainly in the province of Jilin, along the border region of North Korea.
